

St Helen's Church

Loving God, loving others, loving the world

Notices for 23rd August, 2020

Dear Friends

As things continue to ease a little, at least for now; it seems a good moment for reflection; an opportunity to decide, both as individuals and as a church what to pick up again, and what to leave behind.

One of the gifts of the pause Covid-19 has enforced on us is this opportunity to look at our life together afresh, to really see it, rather than just continuing with what we've always done because – well, we've always done it.

Specifically, I have four questions in mind that I'd like us to reflect on:

- what were we doing before Covid-19 that we'd like to pick up again?
- what were we doing before Covid-19 that we'd like to leave behind?
- what have we done during the pandemic that we'd like to continue once its threat is over?
- what have we done during the pandemic that we'd like to leave behind once we are back to 'normal'?

Pausing to reflect on these questions now will mean that when we are able to live less restricted lives, we can live intentionally, putting our energies to what we have seen is at the heart of our calling for us in the post-pandemic world.

I am hoping that each of the churches in our Flagstaff Family might use their Annual Meetings, scheduled for October, to reflect on these questions together. In preparation, why not talk to one another about them, pray to God about them?

In a powerful verse in Isaiah, God says to his people, who have been in exile, 'forget the former things, do not dwell on the past. See! I am doing a new thing' (43.18).

Covid-19 has been, to us, an exile of sorts. As we look towards our return to our homeland, what is God asking us to leave behind, and what new thing is he doing amongst us?

Let's use the gift of this time well to pause, to reflect, to hear God's new call to us.

With love,

Mary

WORSHIP

This Sunday

We continue with our pattern of 4pm Evening Prayer. If you would like to come along this Sunday, do email Mary at revmarygregory@aol.co.uk or call her on 01530 564372.

If you haven't come along yet, why not give it a try?

Sunday 30th August

PRAYER

The bereaved

Please pray for the family of Carole Youles, including especially Keith, Andy and Chris, and for her many friends and colleagues who will miss her terribly. Carole's funeral service will be in St Helen's Church at 11.00am on Wednesday 2nd September.

Because space in church is strictly limited to 30, the family would welcome any church friends who wish to do so to stand on the grassed area at the west end of the churchyard to pay their respects to Carole. If you would like to join in with this, please maintain a good social distance between yourself and others.

Please pray for the family and friends of Geoff Marston, especially his wife Kathleen, part of our Flagstaff Family.

The Bishop's Youth Council is organising a Kahoot Quiz night for young people aged 14-18. This is a great opportunity for young people from across the diocese to come together, play some games get a bit competitive. The evening will be run by young people from the Youth Council but will be supported adult volunteers who will help ensure the evening runs smoothly.
